

Pusack, T. J., Kimbro, D. L., White, J. W., & Stallings, C. D. (2019). Predation on oysters is inhibited by intense or chronically mild, low salinity events: Low salinity stress reduces predation. Limnol Oceanogr, 64(1), 81–92.