

Research: The Key to Florida's Future

Sobha Jaishankar

• Asst. Vice President for Research

UF Research Awards 2006 – 2010

A Culture of Innovation

FLORIDA INNOVATION HUB at UF

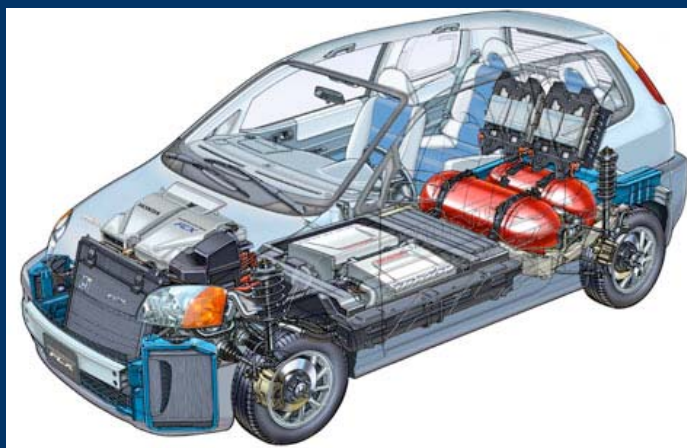

Key Research Characteristics

- Multidisciplinary
- International
- Directed at diverse stakeholders
- Collaborative

Energy

Sustainable Energy

10 Biggest American Cities running out of Water

- 10. Orlando, Fla. (2013)

Major Water Supply: Floridian Aquifer
Population (U.S. rank): 235,860
(80th)

Population Growth Rate: 26.8% since 2000

Average annual rainfall: 48.35 in.

<http://finance.yahoo.com/real-estate/article/111186/the-ten-biggest-american-cities-that-are-running-out-of-water>

Water Institute

Climate Change

FCI Projects

Ecosystems

Agriculture

Coastal Ecosystems

Terrestrial
Ecosystems

Natural Resources

Climate
Sciences

Water

Energy

Land

Human Resources

Human Dimensions

Extension
Education

Future steps

- Received awards totaling $4M
- Submitted 13 collaborative projects that are under review

New Florida 2010 – Knowledge based economy

Florida Climate Institute – New Florida 2010